109. Louisiana Governor Bobby Jindal ordered the Louisiana National Guard and his own state government to take action to protect the state coastline eight weeks after the gulf spill started, even though some operations would take place in federal waters. The Federal government stepped in to try to stop Jindal's efforts because they were not coordinated with the federal response. Do you agree with Jindal acting unilaterally, or should he have waited for federal authorities?

109. Louisiana Governor Bobby Jindal ordered the Louisiana National Guard and his own state government to take action to protect the state coastline eight weeks after the gulf spill started, even though some operations would take place in federal waters. The Federal government stepped in to try to stop Jindal's efforts because they were not coordinated with the federal response. Do you agree with Jindal acting unilaterally, or should he have waited for federal authorities?
